WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28, 1879.

The event of the last week here was the re-union of the Army of the Cumberland and the unveiling of the Thomas Statue. Since the late war there has not been such a military display at the Capitat, nor an occasion which called forth so much universal patriotism. The most arresses versal patriotism. The most agreeable feature of the demonstra ion should be carefully avoided by all the was its entire freedom from even a friends of peace, prosperity, happiness suspicion of politics or any selfish and concord. Indeed, it is nothing the regular army except Gea'ls Sher-idan and Howard was present, and the procession had them all, includ-ing Gen'ls Sherman and Handeocks out their Staffs, in its ranks, with various Corps and veteran organizavarious Corps and veteran organizavarious Corps and veteran organiza-tions. Mr. Hayes, Speaker Randail, Clerk of the House, Adams, and other officials occupied prominent positions. To Mr. Randail the com-

Wherever Alcoholiocates it have resulted seriously to the Seward is a symbol of destruction, symbolical in China but for the expiration of the Congress that ordered the inquiry. He could only have retained his position after what was proven by having so strong a friend as his cousin in the State Department, Col. Moseby, whom the government afterward sent to China, discovered that all had not been told and when he, a short time since, wrote to the President concerning his discoveries there was the radical camp an instinct of hon- ing. esty that is like a ray of light in a "Well, Judge, I'll tell you. You dark cavern. But his innocence in the cavern in the caver supposing that the truth was what the administration wanted set the orever it seems that Mr. Evarts has detimate political and social connec-tion with William H. Seward made limicult for him to believe that the charges made against his nephew had any foundation in fact. Yet scarcely anyone else doubled Seward's guilt from the moment he wifused to produce his books before the investiga-tion committee. Col. John Hay, poet, bar-tenders all deaf?"

The striking feature of the budget is that the estimates are all higher than the allowances for the van. A man that's constitutionally current year, instead of lower as they might have been. In round numbers the amount asked for exceeds the amount appropriated for the current year by about $14,000,000. I am inclined to predict, off hand, that it is John went down without his box several millions more then will be a followed. several millions more than will be of herrings.

of Maryland, who married the widow of Senator John H. Thompson, of New Jersey, a year ago last July, has separated from his wife. It is the sequel of a mysterious separation which was hinted at as occurring six weeks after marriage. His Washington residence will this season be presided over by his daughter, Mrs. Carter, and his daughter-in-law, the young widow of his only son. Mrs. Swann, remains at her home in Princeton.

Chandler, at the close of his speech, in referring to the election in Chicago to-morrow said: "On the night of the election, Mr. Chairman, send me a dispatch, if you please, that Chicago has gone overwhelmingly Republican."

We were exposed last week to a pittless storm, that wet our feet and tacking and indeed and tacking and indeed.

It has been decided after full consideration by the leading republican managers that it would be better not to send speakers to Louisiana this fall. A member of the Congressional Committee worked for nearly ten days in the hope of inducing prominent speakers in the New Yopk campaign to go to New Orleans and help change the vote of the State, with assurances that it would go republican. To his great surprise he found that this was just what the republicans of the North did not want to accompleth, and he was fold that it would be better for his party not to agitate the movement any more. The plain reason given was that the "Solid South" was to be the battle cry next South' was to be the battle cry next a medicine.-[Tehuaccana (Texas.) year, and without it there was no Presbyterian.

sope of keeping the North solid for the republicans. Once break the solid South, sald they, and one-half he force of the republican party is gone. They also argue that if republican speakers went South they would be well treated and as none of them could liope to be made victims of the terrible shotgun, it woul spoil the "bloody shirt?" as an issue. This shows the kind of patriotism that rests in that camp.

Intemperance is a great evil, and Union and is resurected as the loyal, this subject justice. Let it be suffigrand Old Dominion.

The resignation of Assistant Secre-inable Alcohol, the servant of the grand Old Dominion.

The resignation of Assistant Secretary of State Seward I think settles negatively the much agitated question of Mr. Evarts retirement from that several millions more than will be voted, because it is more than is really needed. Secretary Thompson of the Navy Department has set a good example by saving about a million dollars out of the amount appropriated for that department this year; but it is such an musual thing and such a bad precedent in the eyes of his party that the organs are all pitching into him for it. The tax-payers, however, will probably sustain this honest, faithful old man.

For some months past there has been considerable life in the divorce market here and it was evident that outsiders were for some reason learning to make use of our District Courts to unite their restive knots. But the other day Judge McArthur delivered an opinion which will put a damper on that sort of thing. The Judges say it is N. G. as Bardwelle Slote would remark, no go. "The District of Columbia must not become a divorce market for other jurisdictions." In other words these ill-mated pairs can't take this city for Chicago or Indinapolis. It is not that kind of a town. But speaking of ill-mated couples reminds me of the late announcement that Ex-Governor Swann of Maryland, who married the widow of Senator John H. Hall's Hair Renewer does all this, and its prise resounds in cottage and palace. The dwellers among the snows of Forway and the peasants of analy france and Spain, find use for it, and find means to get it, and it does not disappoint them. The whitening locks again resume their youthful color, the thin, dry and falied hair becomes bright and glossy. The whole appearance is changed as if by magic, and the man or woman, who, before was called aged, now appears as one in the prime of life. Such wondrous changes cennot pass unnoticed, and they have produced the unprecedented demand that now exists for the first and only article ever compounded that can produce them in a pleasing and satisfactory manner.
